of emotion in the leading role of the Duchess of Langue, the famous court beauty whose disastrous scandalized the court of Louis XVII in the second Restoration period, and whose romance with General de Montevaux forms one of the most vivid and dramatic achievements from the pen of Balzac.

"The Man Worth White" will be shown on Wednesday. It is an idea of those exceedingly rare pictures which combine the elements that force all classes of audiences to feel proud of their manhood and womanhood.

Ethel Clayton in "I Was Queen" will be presented on Thursday and Friday. It is a story of hazardous adventure and beautiful romance brought about by the call of friendship.

THE OLYMPIA

Rupert Hughes' "Remembrance" will be presented at the Olympia Theatre this Saturday.

On Sunday, Miriam Cooper will be seen in "Kindred of the Dust." Miss Cooper plays the part of Nan of sawdust Pike, a little maid to whom the fair have been unkind, but who, through many vicissitudes, manages to find the happiness for which her aching soul was hourly craving.

On Monday and Tuesday, the Olympia will present "The Name of the Law." The dramatic robbery, in fact, the first work of the police in rounding up the culprits, the accident, the shooting of his own son by one of the policemen, and the resulting public moral interest in the keenest nature to this big photoplay.

Tom Mix will be featured in "Do or Dare" on Wednesday.

THE CASINO

Jack Hoxie in "The Crow's Nest" will be the feature this Saturday at the Casino Theatre.

"Silver Wings," a sensational drama of love and thrills on the Western plains, will be presented on Sunday. The Xmas feature will be Tom Mix and his horse "Tony" in "Arabia." Tom's performance in this latest vehicle has been a surprise even to the most sophisticated of his followers. The flying leaps through space, the hazardous plunges into the surf, and the pellucid drops over the cliffs of Arabia, make this a most thrilling picture.

"The Two Orphans" will be featured on Monday and Tuesday. It is from the old stage plays which held the hearts of four generations, and has a universal appeal to young and old alike.

THE CRITERION

William Farnum will be presented in "Moonshine Valley" at the Criterion Theatre this Saturday. This star has a voice that is especially strong in entertaining. It is a story of the great outdoors, with all the fascination that a clever tale of this sort carries.

"Silver Wings" on Sunday, tells of the emotional ardor concerning mother love, interpreted by Mary Carr.

Thomas Meighan will be seen in "Our Leading Citizen" on Xmas Day. The story is about a young lawyer who fights with political factions in a town where he tries to clean up the village, and proves he can wrap around his head the best called "Silver Wings" by his friends.

On Tuesday, children will be admitted free at the movies from 10 to 5. This will be their Xmas present. The feature picture is "The Spanish Joke."

"Just Around The Corner" will be presented on Thursday. The story was written by Fannie Hurst. The theme here is to do with the trials of a poor family, a mother, son and daughter, and of their ultimate triumph. There are numerous thrilling scenes and on the whole, the production is one of exceptional brilliancy.

THE RETINA

On Xmas Day, the Retina Theatre will present "The Marchand," a story of Red Rock, a madroom town of the West that demands a lawless sheriff which office is assumed by a girl played by Helen Gibson. She posed as a dove but girl in order to find the outlaw and her own heart beat attempted to drag her out of the den when he was set upon by one of the employees and a desperate fight ensued.

Johanna Walker will be seen in the Northland thriller, "My Dad" on Tuesday.

THE PENDLETON

"Silver Wings" will be the Pendleton Theatre feature on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. The theme is the emotional, often-convincing mother love. Interpreted by Mary Carr of the screen, one's pen-up emotion give way to the innumerable heart lunging scenes that cover the entire photoplay. The vital germ of the whole situation is echoed and expanded in a most interesting fashion. One of the leading New York critics describes it thus: "Emotional, thrilling and sustained, finding a definite story of the greatest love that was laid a gold cord through the wondrous fabric of this human story."

Sentiment Against Lynching Growing Stronger In South

White Women Declare Mob Law Is Not Necessary For Their Protection, N. A. A. C. P. Calls Attention To Four Lynchings In Eight Days

NEW YORK, Dec. 20. (Special)—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has made public an "Open Letter To Every United States Senator" setting forth that four lynchings have occurred in the 8 days from Monday, December 4, when the Senate dropped the Dyer Anti-Lynching Bill, to December 12.

The letter charges the Southern States with being directly responsible for the outbreak of barbarous, scarcely and degenerate hostility, which followed the abandonment of the Dyer Anti-Lynching Bill, and expresses the hope that there will prove to be sufficient statesmanship in the Congress of the United States to cope with this threat to civilization.

White Women Of North Carolina Repudiate Lynching "To Protect Womanhood"

NEW YORK, Dec. 20. (Special)—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People calls attention to a statement issued by a group of leading white women of North Carolina, affiliated with the Commission of Inter-racial Cooperation, which denounces mob violence as a method of protecting women's honor.

The statement of these white women of North Carolina acknowledges the responsibility of white people and Christians in the South to treat colored people with fairness.

"We believe," says the statement, that every human being should be treated not as a means to another's ends, but as a person whose aspirations toward self-realization must be recognized."

In regard to mob violence the statement is as follows: "We believe that violence has no place where people lend their support in every possible way to the agencies constituted by the people for the apprehension, trial and punishment of offenders against society. We resent the assertion that criminality can be controlled by lawless outbreaks, and woman's honor protected by senseless acts of revenge."

WHITE WOMEN APPEAL TO SOUTHERN AUTHORITIES TO SUPPRESS LYNCHING

Associated Negro Press. ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 20.—Pointing out that the Dyer Anti-Lynching Bill had been defeated, a group of prominent white women connected with the Southern Methodist Church, have issued a vigorous appeal to the public, calling upon the authorities in the South, the citizenship, the pulpit and the press for their united support for the complete suppression of lynching.

Women were present, representing thirteen states. Each pledged to serve in an official capacity and take an active part in a persistent campaign for law enforcement and for the passage of anti-lynching laws in the Southern States.

Industrial Commission Makes Recommendations

The Need Of Legislations Affecting Negroes Of State Set Forth In Concrete Form. Better Schools And Anti-Lynching Are Included

By John A. Reed.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., (Special to the Argus)—The Missouri Negro Industrial Commission, through the Honorable Robert S. Webb, has compiled the thirteenth bulletin for review of the 32nd General Assembly and has forwarded same to press today.

The report is replete with recommendations and helpful suggestions, and if followed, will aid the race in Missouri materially.

The recommendations are as follows:

1. That a law be enacted prohibiting boards of education fund discrimination against colored teachers in the matter of salaries.
2. The passage of a law requiring physical inspection in all of the schools of Missouri.
3. An act to prevent the crime of lynchings and to provide punishment and penalties therefor.
4. That Negroes be given representation on the State Board of Charities and Corrections.
5. An act to establish a separate reform school for Negro boys.
6. That adequate educational facilities be provided for all children of Missouri, regardless of race.
7. An act providing for an expert labor farm for Negro farmers.
8. An act providing for a unitarian for inter-racial members of the race.
9. That adequate appropriation be made for the support of Lincoln U. and that a liberal appropriation be made for teachers salaries.
10. That Negroes be given Deputy appointments in the various departments.
11. That medical instruments be furnished the Negro inmates of the State prison and a fund be organized.
12. That Jim Crow stations and waiting rooms be abolished in certain sections of the state.

The report also contains a complete survey of industrial, health, penal and educational conditions of the Missouri Negro. It is expected that it will be ready for distribution about Jan. 15, 1923.

URBAN LEAGUE LAUNCHES MONTHLY PUBLICATION

At a meeting of the Executive Board of the National Urban League held in New York City on December 7th, 1922, authority was granted the League Department of Research and Investigation to publish a monthly "Journal of Negro Life" with the title "Opportunity." The first issue is to appear in January and will contain articles on Negro labor by the personnel managers of three of the largest manufacturing companies, the Westinghouse Electric Manufacturing Company, the Carnegie Steel Corporation, and the National Mailbox Company.

The League appropriated $150 for a scholarship at the Social Service Training School at Morehouse College in Atlanta, authorized the holding of an inter-racial conference in New York early in February and adopted a budget of $60,000 for the support of the National organization in 1923. At present, this year $45,000 has been received in cash by the National office and a total of $250,000 has been expended by the National office and all of the branches combined.

The League's 1923 Convention will be held next fall in Kansas City, Mo., on invitation of the Kansas City Community Service Urban League, P. T. Lane, Executive Secretary.
